

Is someone suing you for a debt in Civil Court?

If you are representing yourself and cannot afford an attorney, come to CLARO - the Civil Legal Advice and Resource Office

What: Free legal advice for people sued for consumer debts

When: Fridays, 1:30 P.M. (arrive early – first come-first served)

Where: Queens Civil Court, 89-17 Sutphin Boulevard
Jamaica, Room 116

Please bring all Civil Court and debt-related papers.
No appointment necessary.

If you have questions about CLARO or you are an attorney or law student who wants to volunteer call (718) 739-4100.

CLARO-Queens is staffed by attorneys from the Queens County Bar Association Volunteer Lawyers Project and by students from the St. John's University School of Law.

The Queens Volunteer Lawyers Project, Inc. (QVLP) is a not-for-profit charitable organization which provides free legal assistance to low-income residents of Queens County for various civil law matters.

QVLP is funded in part by a grant from the New York State Interest on Lawyer Account Fund (IOLA) and The New York Bar Foundation has provided a grant for CLARO-Queens.