Re: Additional Benefits of Membership in the Queens
County Bar Association

Every law school student who joins the Queens County Bar Association is eligible to participate in the Mentorship Program, through which students are paired with attorneys who are members of the Queens County Bar Association. They will be assigned a QCBA mentor for the rest of their law school career.

Why Join the QCBA Mentorship Program

The purpose of this program is to offer law students advice and counsel on law school "survival:"

- how to manage competing time commitments,
- how to begin making meaningful career decisions early in their careers, and
- how to develop into responsible, ethical attorneys.
- Participating students will have a contact in the legal community, almost from the beginning of their law school experience.
- The law student may select a QCBA Committee to join as a student member.

Responsibilities of the Law Student in the Mentorship Program:

The Law Student participating in the Mentorship Program is expected to attend no less than 2 QCBA Stated Meetings or other QCBA events per academic year.
